

KCIES Forum on Putting the World into World-Class Education

Tuesday, December 9, 2008

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Bradbury Thompson Center at Washburn University, Topeka

Presented by the Kansas Committee for International Education in the Schools (www.kansasintheworld.org)

- 8:30     Registration and Refreshments
- 9:00     Welcome
Bill Tsutsui, Executive Board, KCIES and Associate Dean of International Studies, University of Kansas
- 9:15     What Is International Education
Glyn Rimmington – Boeing Distinguished Professor Global Education,
Wichita State University
Nancy Hope – Board Member, KCIES and Associate Director, Kansas
Consortium for Teaching about Asia
- 9:45     International Education and the Standards
Phyllis Farrar - Kansas State Department of Education
Lynn Vasquez - Kansas State Department of Education
- 10:15    Break
- 10:30    Selection from “Two Million Minutes”
- 11:00    International Education and Business
Raffaele DeVito, Professor of Business, Emporia State University
Clyde Stoltenberg, Professor Business, Wichita State University
Karyn Page, Executive Director, Kansas World Trade Center
- 11:45    Luncheon and Featured Speaker
Gerhard Fisher, International Education Consultant, Wisconsin
Department of Public Instruction
- 1:00     Model Programs
Betsy Degen – Shawnee Mission School District
Jan Heinen – Olathe Schools
Marjorie Landwehr-Brown – Douglas Global Learning Academy
Dan Lumley - Lee’s Summit School District
Scott Parker – Hill City Schools
- 2:00     Presentation of Kansas in the World Award for Excellence in International Education 2008
- 2:15     Resources and Technology
Kari Stubbs, Director, Professional Development, ePals, Inc.
Losira Okelo - International Education and Resource Network (iEARN)
Nancy Hope
- 3:00     Recap and Closing
William Tsutsui

